§ 545.13 Account records.

(a) Evidence of ownership and account. A Federal savings association shall comply with the requirements found at §§ 563.1 and 563.170(c)(8) of the chapter. Accounts must be evidenced by a written agreement with transactions confirmed by issuance of a receipt or advice.

(b) Ownership of record—(1) General rule. A Federal savings association may treat the holder of record of an account as the owner, regardless of any notice to the contrary, until the account is transferred on the Federal savings association's books. Accounts shall be transferable only on the association's books on proper application by the transferee and acceptance of the transferee as accountholder on terms approved by the board of directors.

(2) Exception. Paragraph (b)(1) of this section notwithstanding, a Federal savings association may issue negotiable certificate accounts in bearer form without recording ownership on the books of the Federal savings association: Provided, That any provisions of the Federal savings association's charter regarding membership and voting shall not apply to such certificates.

(c) Use of collecting and paying agent. A Federal savings association may authorize any bank that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to prepare, sign and deliver evidence of accounts, to collect and transmit funds obtained from those accounts, and to maintain records with respect to such accounts. The Federal savings association may provide for issuance of duplicate certificates, bond, security and other protection in connection with such activities. A Federal savings association may also authorize any such institution to pay an account according to its terms.

§ 545.14 Determination and distribution of earnings.

(a) Rates of return. A Federal savings association may issue savings accounts earning interest at different rates of return, which may be fixed at the time the account is issued or may vary on any basis specified at the time the deposit is accepted, subject to § 563.10 of this chapter.

(b) Time of distribution. A Federal savings association may distribute earnings on savings accounts, or designated classes thereof, as provided in its charter and bylaws and the terms of the account.

(c) Distribution on share accounts. No distribution of earnings on share accounts may be made under this section until provision has been made for payment of expenses and for the pro rata portion of credits to reserves required by the Federal savings association's charter and by part 567 of this chapter.
